The power of social

Social media became a natural part of our lives and nothing brings people more together than beauty. People love to inspire each other, travel, and explore new things. Likes and shares create a big portion of interactions with Lasvit Design social media profiles and we are delighted to see many pictures (and selfies) around our lighting projects. Lifestyle bloggers, travel curators, design studios, photographers, and people in general are celebrating beauty and design.

LASVIT MAKES YOU #INSTAGRAMMABLE

There is a hunger for so called „instagrammable“ design – especially with the rising popularity of social networks built around esthetically appealing content. Not to mention the undeniable power of influencers who can spread the word through pictures that resonate with their audience.

People nowadays search for places that have „great-caption-potential“.
Why not leverage this possibility and have one in your lobby/restaurant/space?
